

ORDINANCE 13 29

Issuance of Provisional operator' licenses.

WHEREAS: A Town Board may by ordinance provide for the issuance of such license to a person who has applied for a operator license and are enrolled in a training course per State Statue 127.17(6).

WHEREAS: Applicant must be approved by the Town Board, before issuance of a license by the Town Clerk.

WHEREAS: Provisional license is good for a period not to exceed 60 days, or until a regular license is issued. Fee is determined by the Town Board.

WHEREAS: Upon completing the training course, applicant must present certificate of proof to the clerk before regular license will be issued.

WHEREAS: This ordinance shall take effect from and after the date of passage, and filed in the Town records by the clerk.

The foregoing ordinance was adopted at a regular meeting of the Town Board of the Town of Maneagan, County of Bayfield on 6-11, 1991

Approved bt TOWN BOARD of _____ this _____ day of _____, 19____

R. D. Romm
Town Chairman

Filed this 12 day of June, 1991

Gene E. M. Grave
Clerk

Vernon Linder

Town Supervisor

Shirley M. Kravick

Town Supervisor